

You Can Do 5 Things!

Bucks County Public Libraries have launched classes to help older adults learn new skills using computers and digital cameras. Known as the 5 Things Project, the hands-on trainings focus on topics that help you stay connected with friends and family, and enhance the quality of your life. You may choose from among 5 classes: email, facebook, using a digital camera, photo sharing, or blogging/Twitter. The hour-long classes are facilitated by adult and teen volunteers and are small in size – no more than 14 learners at a time. The Library is proud to be partnering with Bucks County Area Agency on Aging and RSVP to bring these classes to you. Funding for the 5 Things Project has been provided by a grant awarded by the Library Services Technology Act. All classes are free and registration is usually required. Class information is available at the library website www.buckslib.org.
